

LEE COUNTY

Board of Commissioners

One of Georgia's original counties ~ Established in 1825

The Lee County Board of Commissioners will be accepting proposals from attorneys licensed to practice law in the State of Georgia in connection with the provision of indigent defense services for the Magistrate Court of Lee County. The following shall apply to such proposals:

- (a) All proposals must be written and shall include, as an exhibit thereto, relevant biographical information for the attorney submitting the proposal, which biographical information shall include, but shall not be necessarily limited to, the law school from which such attorney graduated, the years in practice for the lawyer since graduation from law school, the courts to which the lawyer is currently admitted (both federal and state), and a summary of the areas of law in which the attorney currently practices. The attorney should also provide the average percentage of his or her law practice which is devoted to criminal defense matters on an annual basis.
- (b) The successful attorney shall be familiar with all relevant state laws, local ordinances, and rules of procedure applicable to criminal cases which are subject to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate Court of Lee County.
- (c) The successful attorney shall be required to enter into a twelve-month contract with the Lee County Board of Commissioners to provide indigent defense services for the Magistrate Court of Lee County on a regular basis upon such schedule as may be established from time to time by the Judges of such Courts. Such services will be provided by the attorney on an independent contractor basis, and the attorney will be expected to attend all motion hearings, plea hearings, and trials involving indigent defendants assigned to the attorney by either of said courts. The successful attorney shall not be authorized to assign the contract to another attorney or to allow another attorney to substitute for him or her in fulfilling the obligations of the contract unless he or she receives advance approval of such substitution from the presiding Judge. Any conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest in a particular matter shall be brought to the attention of the presiding Judge by the attorney, who shall handle the conflict in the same manner as other conflicts are handled in such Court.
- (d) The contract may be subject to renewal by the Board of Commissioners for two additional one-year terms after the expiration of the initial annual term.

Lee County is a thriving, vibrant community celebrated for its value of tradition encompassing a safe family oriented community, schools of excellence, and life long opportunities for prosperity and happiness without sacrificing the rural agricultural tapestry.
