Director of Planning, Zoning and Engineering
Lee County, Georgia

Salary Range: DOQ

Application Deadline: until filled

Lee County, Georgia, (pop. 28,575), a progressive, rapidly growing community located in Southwest Georgia, is seeking an experienced professional to serve as Director of Planning and Development. The position reports to the County Manager and manages the daily operations of a department with 3 employees and a $250,000 budget. This position will oversee planning, engineering projects, land development permitting, erosion and sedimentation control permitting, site construction and utility construction permitting as well as enforcement of FEMA regulations.

The County is a unique blend of residential, commercial and industrial development with a traditional rural flair. Interspersed with creeks, lakes, plantations, and historical sites, the community offers excellent recreational opportunities. The county experienced a 12.5% increase in population between 2000 and 2010 and ranks 61st in population out of 159 Georgia counties.

The successful candidate will have requisite technical expertise in the areas to be supervised; effective communication and writing skills; previous supervisory experience and a demonstrated record of achievement in a similar public or private agency is required. The successful applicant must be familiar with Georgia's comprehensive planning act and regulations. A construction or engineering background is desirable, but not required.

A Bachelor's degree in planning, public administration, engineering or related field and five years of experience in a public sector development environment or a similar private sector development environment is desired or a minimum of ten years of comparable work experience education and training which provides the requisite knowledge skills and abilities required for this position.

To apply, submit resume and a cover letter outlining achievements and experience, and five references complete with mailing address, e-mail and phone numbers to Diane Herring, Human Resources, 102 Starksville Avenue North, Leesburg, Georgia, 31763, or email to dherring@lee.ga.us.

Lee County is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Drug Free Workplace.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the County will provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities and encourages both prospective and current employees to discuss potential accommodations with the employer.

Lee County is a thriving, vibrant community celebrated for its value of tradition encompassing a safe family oriented community, schools of excellence, and life long opportunities for prosperity and happiness without sacrificing the rural agricultural tapestry.
